

Funding guidelines for FedUni Clubs and Societies

Affiliated Clubs and Societies may be eligible to access Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF) funding from Student Engagement at various times throughout the year. It is important that club and society committees and members have a thorough understanding of the SSAF guidelines and comply with these when spending SSAF funds.

Commonwealth SSAF guidelines stipulate that revenue from the Student Services and Amenities Fee may only be spent on certain types of services or activities. These allowable expenditure items fall into the following categories. Those highlighted will be of most use within your club or society.

- (a) providing food or drink to students on a campus of the higher education provider
- (b) supporting a sporting or other recreational activity by students;
- (c) supporting the administration of a club most of whose members are students;
- (d) caring for children of students
- (e) providing legal services to students
- (f) promoting the health or welfare of students
- (g) helping students secure accommodation;
- (h) helping students obtain employment or advice on careers;
- (i) helping students with their financial affairs
- (j) helping students obtain insurance against personal accidents;
- (k) supporting debating by students
- (l) providing libraries and reading rooms (other than those provided for academic purposes) for students;
- (m) supporting an artistic activity by students
- (n) supporting the production and dissemination to students of media whose content is provided by students
- (o) helping students develop skills for study, by means other than undertaking * courses of study in which they are enrolled
- (p) advising on matters arising under the higher education provider's rules (however described);
- (q) advocating students' interests in matters arising under the higher education provider's rules (however described);
- (r) giving students information to help them in their orientation;
- (s) helping meet the specific needs of * overseas students relating to their welfare, accommodation and employment.