Student Enrolment Fees

Student Enrolment Fees

All VET programs offered by Federation University have an enrolment fee associated which is payable at the time of enrolments. A statement of fees will be provided to you prior to enrolment. Fees are made up of the following charges:

- Tuition Fee Contribution – this varies based on the program of study and eligibility. It is calculated based on an amount for each scheduled hour. Eligible students pay considerably less as the State Government helps subsidise a portion of the tuition fee.
- Material Fee – covers the cost of materials such as tools, uniforms, text books etc. purchased by the University and provided to the student.
- Ancillary Fees – may include excursion costs and incidentals.

Some programs may require the purchase of text books. This charge is in addition to the enrolment fees and is solely the student's responsibility.

Schools will provide details of any additional charges prior to enrolment.

Note: Material and ancillary fees must be paid in full prior to materials being issued. You may be required to provide evidence of payment.

Note: You will be required to provide a copy of your current concession card for any additional course/unit enrolment or new program enrolment. The university will not apply concession to an existing enrolment if the relevant evidence is not supplied within the stipulated time frames.

Centrelink Digital Wallet Concession – where a concession card is presented via a Digital Wallet through a Centrelink Express mobile application the university staff member must sight and authenticate the card viewing the card directly through the Centrelink Express Plus mobile application on your mobile device. Competency Based Training and Assessment

Most VET courses are delivered according to Competency Based training and assessment principles. VET courses help you gain skills and knowledge that are required aspects of the work performance for your industry. Competency standards set out the skills, knowledge and attitudes required to operate effectively in employment. This includes the ability to perform individual tasks, to manage and respond to contingencies or breakdowns, and deal with the responsibilities of the workplace. As a student you will be assessed against the competency standards set for your course.

Hospitality Courses

Students who require a knife set and multimedia resource for their hospitality course are required to pay full cost of the knife set and multimedia resource at the time of enrolment. Please contact the hospitality department for details.

Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning

As a VET student you are able to gain recognition for your existing skills and knowledge no matter where, or how, these were acquired. There are two ways that you can gain this recognition at FedUni:

1. Credit Transfer

Credit Transfer is granted where evidence is provided to show that the same unit of competency has been successfully passed at the University or another Registered Training Organisation (RTO). Under the principles of mutual recognition the University accepts Australian Qualification Framework Qualifications and Statement of Attainments issued by other RTO's. Credit will be given in units of competency for which an original, official Certificate or Statement of Attainment is provided.

2. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

RPL is the formal acknowledgment of skills, knowledge and competencies, regardless of how and where the learning occurred. It is the process of matching current skills and knowledge against competencies learnt in the workplace, through voluntary work, social or domestic activities, or formal or informal studies is relevant to your course you may gain recognition or RPL for these units.

Please note a charge applies to all RPL enrolments.

If you believe you are eligible for RPL or Credit Transfer you need to discuss this with your School before the commencement of teaching.

Note: The concession rate will not apply when the student's tuition contribution is being fully paid by a Commonwealth Government Agency or as part of a Commonwealth program or initiative.

We know that your apprenticeship or traineeship is the first step in what will be a very rewarding career, we understand how important this is and will provide you with the support and training to ensure that your experiences at FedUni are of the highest quality.

The following information is designed to help you to better understand the role of each party in your apprenticeship or traineeship.

As we have entered into a new era of training with the introduction of Competency Based Training and Assessment, we have outlined how this new system works and how it will benefit you.

Please read carefully and ask us if you need help in understanding its contents. It will help you get the most out of your learning environment and may enable you to complete your apprenticeship or traineeship in a shorter time frame.

We look forward to working together to help you to achieve your goals, and will also encourage you to strive for recognition through internal and external awards programs and competitions.

The Training Plan

Every apprentice and trainee at FedUni will be required to negotiate a Training Plan. This working document is the roadmap to your qualification and lists everything that you will need to achieve to gain your qualification.

The University will conduct a Pre Training review with the apprentice and employer so that we can understand the individual's needs and design the training plan accordingly. In line with Competency Based Completion requirements your FedUni Training Plan will be used to confirm competency at each stage of your apprenticeship or traineeship, at times you and your employer will be asked to confirm sections of this Plan with either a signature or electronic confirmation.

About your training plan

Your training plan will outline how and where your training will occur, this may be on campus, on your worksite or even online. Your plan can be altered at any time if it no longer is a reflection of your job role or qualification, we can adjust the units to create a better fit or negotiate different ways of assessing you.

The apprentice, employer and in the case of School Based Apprentices the secondary school will receive a copy of the Training Plan.

It is important that you retain this copy as it is a valuable resource for your apprenticeship or traineeship. A copy of your Training Plan may be requested by your Australian Apprenticeship Support Network provider if you or your employer is claiming financial incentives.

For more information on incentive payments, please contact Skilling Australia or contact the Apprenticeship Incentive General Information Service on 13 38 73.

What does competence mean?

Competence is when you can prove to both your supervisor and FedUni assessor that you can perform all the tasks in your Unit Outline independently. You must be able to perform these tasks safely and to industry standard.

You must also demonstrate an understanding of the underpinning knowledge required for your qualification.

What is the difference between training and assessment?

Training is where you learn, over a period of time, to be able to perform a task to a set standard. When you have performed this task several times in a safe manner and you understand the underpinning knowledge component of the task (planning, preparing, material types etc) you will be ready to be assessed.

Training (both in the workplace or at FedUni) will take many forms such as the following:

- Your supervisor showing you how to do various tasks
- Your FedUni assessor also assisting you in your training
- Learning by observing others working
- Completing the underpinning knowledge readings and tests (online or hardcopy)

Learning Materials

Unit outlines

There is a Unit Outline for each competency. These are available online or can be printed out – ask your assessor if you need them printed out.

All the Unit Outlines are similar in appearance and layout and ask you to do similar types of activities for each unit of competency.

Texts

There is also a list of suggested and compulsory resources. It is necessary for you to purchase those considered vital to your training.

On Line Questions and Tests

These questions/tests will help you understand some of the more important theory aspects of the tasks. You will need to be able to answer all these questions prior to the formal assessment. You can find the answers in one of many ways.

- Ask your supervisor
- Look it up in a reference book or search the internet
- Ask your assessor – they may direct you to another source
- Ask a colleague at work

Assessment

May take many forms:

- Completion of online tests and questions
- Video or camera evidence of tasks completed
- Employer/supervisor reports/verification
- On-site completion of tasks
- Off-site (FedUni) completion of tasks

Your FedUni assessor will either visit you at various pre-arranged times throughout the year to conduct assessments, or will have arranged for you to attend the University. If you believe you are ready to have the next unit assessed, you can arrange an earlier appointment. Details of how each unit of competency is to be assessed are listed on your training plan in Part III. All units are assessed in line with the employability skills which are:

Communication, Initiative and Enterprise, Learning, Planning and Organisation, Problem Solving, Self Management, Team Work and Technology.

Your Online training tools

ePortfolios

Every apprentice and trainee at FedUni has the opportunity to have their own ePortfolio in Mahara. Mahara is a fully featured electronic portfolio, weblog, resume builder and social networking system, connecting users and creating online communities. Mahara provides you with the tools to set up a personal learning and development environment.

You can also utilise your ePortfolio to message individuals or groups, and can communicate with your teachers and trainers as well as classmates.

You can also utilise your ePortfolio to message individuals or groups, and can communicate with your teachers and trainers as well as classmates.

ePortfolios are a great way to keep a workplace log or journal and act as a great resource when applying for a job as you can show a collection of tasks and duties as well as your resume to prospective employers.

Moodle

Moodle is the official Learning Management System at the university. It contains resources and activities that are relevant to your courses.

As an employer of an apprentice you must:

- Ensure, where the qualification is at the Certificate III or above (this includes Trade Apprentices) that the apprentice/trainee is withdrawn from routine work duties for a minimum of three hours per week (pro rata for part-time apprentices/trainees and only for the duration of the workplace based training period for combination of Workplace Based Training (WBT) and on campus delivery) for structured training, averaged over a 4 week cycle.

The WBT requirements will be outlined when you are designing your training plan.

- Employ and train the apprentice as agreed in the training plan
- Provide the apprentice with training and work skill in all the on the job training components of the course as agreed in the training plan using a suitably qualified person
- Allow the apprentice to attend all scheduled on campus training
- Action the competency completion documentation or confirmation as required

- If training is ALL campus based, make a minimum of 4 contacts per annum with the employer to discuss progress against the Training Plan (by a combination of visit, email or phone)
- If training is ALL workplace based make a minimum of 4 visits per annum to conduct training and assessment, and make monthly contact with the employer and apprentice to discuss progress either by visit, phone or email
- If an employer is not meeting the mandatory requirements of release from routine duties, and after discussion with the RTO has not rectified this problem the RTO (FedUni) must advise the Apprenticeship Administration Unit, VQRA, within two weeks of this failure to comply.

As an apprentice you must:

- Attend all on campus scheduled training. Where you are unable to attend you must contact your assessor or co-ordinator immediately to advise them of your absence

- Advise us if you believe you are not being released from routine duties for Workplace Based Training
- Advise your assessor if you believe you cannot meet the timelines negotiated in the training plan

Disputes

Sometimes things go wrong. If you find that issues are not being resolved and tension is increasing then try some of the following suggestions:

- Find the cause of the problem and talk it through with your employer/supervisor
- If the matter is do with training and/or assessment call your FedUni assessor
- If it is about terms and conditions of the apprenticeship call the Apprenticeship Administration Unit, VQRA (Phone: 1300 722 603)
