

Internationalisation of the Curriculum Forum

Date: Thursday 23rd July, 2015

Theme: Creating global citizens

Duration: 9.30am – 12.30pm

Locations: C001 & surrounding rooms (Mt Helen) / 2E101 (Gippsland)

*Morning tea provided from 9.30am

1. Welcome	10 minutes
2. The context at FedUni <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Panel discussion: The Student Voice (international & local students sharing their experiences of other cultures): “Do I feel like a global citizen?” Presentation: FedUni lecturer, Eldar Hajilarov, speaking on his experiences adapting to teaching in Australia. 	50 minutes
3. Workshops around forum theme On separate campuses, staff and students join group discussions related to three areas (see below) where IoC is present at FedUni. Formal curriculum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What exists in the curriculum that is already enabling our students to have a global outlook? What do we want to see at FedUni that encourages further internationalisation in our courses? Co-curricula: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What activities are we engaged in that promote meaningful intercultural exchanges? What other opportunities exist for us to encourage development of intercultural competence? Research: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What international research activities does FedUni need to encourage to promote global awareness amongst our staff? What do we need to be able to achieve this? 	50 minutes
4. Keynote speaker: Associate Professor Anita Harris “Contextualising Global Citizenship Education: Young People and Social Change”	40 minutes + 10 minutes questions
5. Closing remarks: Associate Professor Mike Willis	10 minutes