Glossary of terms

Y12: Current Year 12 students or applicants who have completed Year 12 within the previous two years and have not undertaken HE or VET studies.

NY12: Applicants who have undertaken HE and/or VET studies; and those being considered based on other experience.

HE — Applicants whose highest level of study since secondary education is a higher education course.

VET — Applicants whose highest level of study since secondary education is a vocational education and training (VET) course.

Work/life experience — Applicants who left secondary education more than two years previously, and have not undertaken HE or VET studies.

ATAR: The specified ATAR (including adjustment factors) required for entry into a course.

Important information

Entry Requirements

Entry Requirements will be determined by your background.

Recent Secondary Education: Current Year 12 students, including applicants who have completed Year 12 within the previous two years (and have not undertaken Higher Education or VET studies), must meet Year 12 prerequisite entry requirements.

Eligible applicants will be ranked for admission based on their ATAR and ATAR Adjustment Factors – e.g. Special Entry Access Scheme (SEAS) and Subject Adjustments. Applicants will be selected in order of ranking and the number of offers made to applicants will be based on course specific quotas.

Non year 12 applicants are people who have undertaken Higher Education or VET studies; completed Year 12 more than 2 years previously; or those who are being considered based on other work/life experience. These applicants will be considered based on relevant background, as well as demonstrated ability to undertake further studies.

Some courses have extra requirements during the application process. Depending on the study area, this may be an interview, folio or audition, test or additional form. These are essential requirements and must be completed in order to be considered for selection.

FedUni offers a range of admission pathways for students who do not meet specified entry requirements.

How to apply

You can apply to FedUni via VTAC or direct application. How you apply, and the subsequent entry requirements will be determined by your applicant background.

Higher Education applicants: Current Year 12 students and applicants applying for more than one institution must apply through VTAC. Non Year 12 students only applying to FedUni can submit a direct application form to FedUni.

TAFE applicants: Please check individual courses as application requirements may vary.

Study modes

You may study full-time or part-time, on-campus, or online (where applicable), or a blend of study modes where available.

Student fees

Fees will vary dependent on your circumstances and what course you apply for.

Scholarships, grants and bursaries

Scholarships, grants and bursaries are available to eligible students and may be awarded based on academic merit, indigenous background, financial challenges and hardship or relocation support.

Study types

F Foundation and support studies

These courses are designed for students with an education level below Year 12.

A Admission pathway

Courses specifically designed to assist VCE graduates or experience-based applicants meet academic requirements for entry into an undergraduate level course.
