This month’s theme...

Historic Urban Landscapes

Cities are dynamic organisms.
Social structures and needs evolve, the physical fabric adapts constantly.
The goal of conserving traditional structures in the city is subject to continuous compromise.

Does this mean that urban conservation is a dream? A collective illusion?

With your guest hosts...
Amy Tsilemanis, Creative Director, Weave Length Productions
David McGinniss, Student, Federation University Australia

Go to ‘History / Heritage / Place: Historic Urban Landscapes’ on Facebook for more information about the themes and ideas for discussion.
