The 2016 Australian Historical Association conference will be held in Ballarat from Monday 4 July to Friday 8 July. Goldfields site visits and ancillary events will be scheduled for Saturday 9 July.

AHA 2016: From Boom to Bust is convened by the Collaborative Research Centre in Australian History (CRCAH) at Federation University Australia.

Conference themes include:
- Frontier encounters and challenging colonial legacies
- Urban and regional histories
- Industrial heritage, cultural landscapes and historic urban landscapes
- Minerals and mining, from gold seeking to the end of the second long boom
- Galleries, Libraries, Archives and Museums (GLAM) sector, history and cultural heritage
- Labour and economic histories
- Environmental histories
- Oral histories, public histories, genealogical and migration stories

The AHA conference organising committee welcomes proposals for:
- individual papers that reflect critically on our theme or sub-themes from any angle, historical period, or research area, or
- panel sessions that
  - bring together postgraduate, early career and established researchers; or
  - bring together those working in the GLAM sector with academics; or
  - group three or four papers and a chair

Proposals consisting of an abstract of no more than 200 words per paper, together with a 60 word author biography, should be submitted to aha2016@federation.edu.au by Wednesday 3 February 2016.
