

Vice-Chancellor's Awards for contributions to student learning 2009 Citation Recipients

Associate Professor Allan Mann,
Ms Loris Button and Associate
Professor Jim Sillitoe
Program Team

For the development and application of a team approach to supervision ensuring the successful completion of thirty-two non-traditional graduate candidates 1999-2009.

No photo available

Jenene Burke, Adele Echter,
Christopher Wines and
Amanda McGraw
School of Education

For the development of a structured, innovative, integrated teaching and learning program to aid students in developing deep understandings about how people learn.

No photo available

Ms Helen Song-Turner
School of Business

For commitment to cross-cultural education.

Dr Robyn Brandenburg
School of Education

For sustained commitment to innovative research-based approaches to the teaching and learning of mathematics, resulting in pre-service teachers' growth as critically reflective teachers.

Ms Diane Clingin
Research and Graduate Studies
Office

For a long-term contribution to the development of innovative services and pastoral support for Higher Degree by Research candidates and contributing to a strong postgraduate life at the University of Ballarat.

Ms Amanda Mooney and Ms Loris Gullock
School of Human Movement and
Sport Sciences

For the implementation of an inspiring and innovative student-centred mentoring program that enhances first and fourth year physical education students approaches to learning and teaching.

Associate Professor Kim Durban
Arts Academy

For the vision, planning and implementation of a contemporary approach to artistic training in a regional area which has created outstanding graduate success.

---

2009 Teaching Excellence Recipient

Amanda McGraw
School of Education and Arts

In recognition of a broad and deep contribution to enhancing the quality of learning and teaching at the University of Ballarat.