So you’re at Uni… you’ve enrolled, you made it to your first lectures and tutorials but now it all just seems so overwhelming….. how do you find the text books and where is the book store.. There are assessments that have to be completed… you don’t really like the people you have to live with. The lecturers keep talking about plagiarism and what is this Turn it in thing? Moodle? My student centre. … It’s all so confusing…..

And on top of that you need to find work to be able to eat… and you wonder if you are doing the right classes…

And really… you just want to go home and see your family … So who can help?

At Federation University there are a variety of people who can help to support you to continue your studies ……

INDIAN STUDENTS’ ASSOCIATION

A message from ISA President - Sumit Dhar

This year we saw a fair number of Indian students who registered for the Indian Students’ Association during the Orientation day on 18th Feb, 2015. We would like to congratulate all the new students and wish them a bright and happy year 2015 at Federation University.

FedUni ISA was established in 2014 with the vision to help the new Indian Students in multiple areas (accommodation, studies, part-time jobs, teaching methods, & the list goes on....) where they might face difficulties or are afraid to share. We are happy to help you. Also, we are planning to have our first cultural event later this year.

FedUni ISA is still a growing association and we are actively looking for volunteers. So, if you are interested to join but haven’t done yet, please send an email to sumitdhar@students.federation.edu.au. We will get back to you soon.

FedUni LIBRARY FAQs

When is the Library open?
Mount Helen Campus library hours are:
Monday-Thursday 8:30am – 8pm
Friday 8:30am – 5pm
Saturday/Sunday 1-5pm

How much can I borrow?
You can borrow up to 30 items for 14 days if you’re undergraduate and up to 100 items for 42 days if you’re post-graduate. If your item hasn’t been requested by someone else, you can renew it online, by phone or in person, before its due date.

I’m not sure how to use the library.
That’s okay. There’s a lot to know about using the Library and all of our resources, which is why we offer free Library Skills classes at Mt Helen. They teach you how to find, how to reference and how to use a referencing program called RefWorks. To enrol, click on the Library Skills banner on the library homepage.

If you can’t make it to one of our classes, we have a YouTube channel with short tutorials that demonstrate much of what we show you in a class. Find it here www.youtube.com/FedUniLibrary

You can also chat with a librarian or look up our FAQs just by clicking on the chat button on the webpage.

See you in the library
Do you want to find a part-time or casual job and don't know where to look?
Do you have a current resume?
Have you attended an interview and felt unprepared?

Student Careers & Employment are here to help!

We are a FREE service for students and can assist you with:
Finding part-time and casual work while studying
Finding employment after you graduate
Volunteer employment
Resume and cover letter writing or drop into our office which is located on the 1st floor of the Albert Coates complex (U Building) above the cafeteria.

Do you want to improve your English communication skills?

A research study is being conducted by a Doctoral student with the Faculty of Education and Arts, Federation University Australia. This research aims to explore second language development in the study abroad context. A recent pilot study associated with this project found that the students involved were able to reflect on how they were learning English and reported improved English communication skills.

Are you from Mainland China?
Are you over 18 years of age?
Have you recently enrolled in a Business degree at Federation University Australia?

If you answered YES to these questions then you could be just the person we are looking for!
