

Vice-Chancellor's Awards for contributions to student learning

2010 Citation Recipients

|   |  |   |
|---|--|---|
|    | Mr Adam BakerSchool of Business   | For the reconfiguration of lecture delivery by integrating authenticity, student-centric learning and active learning (ASA) to create an inspiring education experience for students of Marketing.             |
|    | Ms Julianne EveleighArts Academy  | For introducing and supporting positive self-awareness strategies and practices to enable students to learn to access a focussed, flexible and integrated voice in performance.                                |
|   | Dr Nina FotinatosSchool of Science and Engineering  | For the development of future multi-skilled healthcare professionals, able to learn, develop and embrace new knowledge, by methods of reflection and practical experiences.                                    |
| No photo available  | Ms Bernadette GlabTeam Nursing SMB  | For a holistic team approach to supporting and respecting students as individuals on their journey to becoming professional nurses.  |
|  | Mr Eric HolmSchool of Business  | For introducing and supporting approaches to teaching and assessment in Business and Law which foster, facilitate and develop self-directed, independent, lifelong adult learners.                             |
| No photo available  | Ms Susan McPhan and the Research, Education and Liaison (REaL) TeamSchool of Library Services | For a collaborative team approach to supporting postgraduate students through innovative library services and resources which foster critical analytical thinking, information literacy and lifelong learning. |
|  | Dr Charlynn MillerGraduate School of ITMS   | For institutional leadership in the creative design and use of emerging technologies to provide flexible learning and research options for undergraduate and postgraduate students.                            |

Mr Peter Pilven
Arts Academy

For three decades of inspiring and engaging pedagogy in the Visual Arts, blending scholarship, professional practice with empathy and respect for a diverse student cohort.

No photo available

Ms Swati Shahapurkar
IIBIT Sydney

For academic management of University of Ballarat programs which provide international students with a quality education experience noted for building confidence and individual capacity.

No photo available

Dr Syed Uddin
School of Business – IIBIT Sydney

For sustained contribution to student learning by means of imaginative resources and effective delivery designed to encourage critical thinking and challenge students intellectually.