

Recipients of the Australian Awards for University Teaching (AAUT)

Australian Awards for University Teaching

Citations for outstanding contributions to student learning

2012 OLT Citation Recipients

Mr John Hayes
School of Food, Land and Service
Industries

For demonstrating contemporary leadership and respectful engagement with students, colleagues and employers while instigating programs aligned with industry trends within a demand-driven tertiary education environment.

Dr Xiaoli Jiang
School of Education and Arts

For the creation of 'flow' like experience assessments and feedback that foster independent learning and adapt to different contexts and diverse student needs.

Dr Amanda McGraw
School of Education and Arts

For the development and implementation of interactive assessment and feedback approaches which enhance cognitive and meta-cognitive processing designed to build learning capacity and independence.

Associate Professor Neil Trivett
Centre for Learning Innovation and Professional Practice

For two decades of scholarly activities that have been recognised locally, nationally and internationally for their contribution to learning and teaching across tertiary education.

Mr David Wynen
School of Education and Arts

For achieving international recognition for leadership in performing arts by developing original resources which accelerate student learning, enabling them to succeed nationally and internationally.