

Recipients of the Australian Awards for University Teaching (AAUT)

Australian Awards for University Teaching

Citations for outstanding contributions to student learning

2011 ALTC Citation Recipients

Mr Adam Baker
School of Business

For the reconfiguration of lecture delivery by integrating authenticity, student-centric learning and active learning (ASA) to create an inspiring educational experience for students of marketing.

Ms Julianne Eveleigh
Arts Academy

For introducing and supporting positive self awareness strategies and practices to enable students to access a focussed, flexible and integrated voice in performance.

Dr Nina Fotinatos
School of Science and Engineering

For fostering student engagement through authentic, practical experiences as a basis for building capacity in future healthcare professionals to transfer skills across the sector.

Dr Charlynn Miller
Graduate School of Information
Technology and Mathematical
Sciences

For institutional leadership in the creative design and use of emerging technologies to provide flexible learning, research and sustainability options for students and staff.

Ms Amanda Mooney and Ms Loris Gullock
School of Human Movement and
Sport Sciences

For the innovative application of peer-mentoring in assessment, feedback and learning support strategies that cultivate independent learning in contexts relevant to pre-service physical education teachers.

Mr Peter Pilven
Arts Academy

For three decades of inspiring and engaging pedagogy in the visual arts, blending scholarship, professional practice with empathy and respect for a diverse student cohort.

