

Recipients of the Australian Awards for University Teaching (AAUT)

Australian Awards for University Teaching

Citations for outstanding contributions to student learning

2014 OLT Citation Recipients

The Office for Learning and Teaching (OLT) has announced that three Citations for outstanding contributions to student learning have been awarded to University staff. The Citations, one of the categories of the Australian Awards for University Teaching, recognise staff who have made a sustained and significant contribution to the quality of student learning in a specific area.

The University congratulates its 2014 Citations recipients:

Dr Barbara Panther
Faculty of Science and Technology

For the development of innovative, flexible and relevant chemistry learning resources and assessment that engage and improve learning outcomes for a diverse student population.

Dr Margaret Plunkett
Faculty of Education and Arts

For building capacity of pre-service teachers to engage in strategies and practices, optimising diverse student learning by unpacking and modelling differentiated theory and practice.

Dr Jacqueline Wilson
Faculty of Education and Arts

For drawing upon personal experience, professional learning and research to engage with diverse learners in innovative ways resulting in growth of the history program.