

ACKNOWLEDGING YOUR RESEARCH TRAINING PROGRAM (RTP) SCHOLARSHIP SOURCE

Under the FedUni Research Training Program (RTP) Scholarship Policy, from the start of 2017, all HDR candidates are now required to formally acknowledge the source of their RTP scholarships in all outputs generated from their postgraduate research at any time during or after completion of their HDR degree. This includes all materials such as books, articles, newsletters or other literary or artistic works which relate to the research project carried out by the candidate in receipt of an RTP scholarship.

Details of the type of RTP scholarship you have received are either in your confirmation of re-enrolment letter (for students enrolled prior to 2017) or in your initial scholarship offer letter (if you initially enrolled after 2016).

To assist you in acknowledging your RTP scholarship source, you can select the appropriate text below, insert your name and include this in the acknowledgements section of any material you produce.
