Opportunities for
Study | Research | Training
in the United States

The Fulbright Program is the flagship foreign exchange program of the United States of America, aimed at increasing binational collaboration, cultural understanding and the exchange of ideas.

Since its establishment, the Fulbright Program has grown to become the largest educational exchange program in the world, operating in over 160 countries.

Since its inception in Australia 70 years ago, over 5,000 Australians and Americans have been awarded Fulbright Scholarships.

Applications open
4 February - 15 July 2019

fulbright.org.au
FULLY and PARTIALLY-FUNDED STUDY AND RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

Fulbright offers a range of merit-based scholarships for study, research and/or training.

Australian and American graduate students, postdoctoral researchers, university faculty, and professionals—in any discipline, field, or sector—may apply for Fulbright Scholarships. See the below table for an overview of the various scholarship categories and eligibility.

---

POSTGRADUATE

I would like to complete part of my current Master’s program in the U.S. (up to two semesters)

OR

I would like to undertake a full Master’s program in the U.S.

OR

I wish to conduct research in the U.S. as part of my current PhD program (up to 10 months)

OR

I wish to undertake a full PhD program in the U.S.

---

POSTDOCTORAL

I have completed my PhD in the last five years and want to undertake postdoctoral research in the U.S. (up to 10 months)

---

SCHOLAR

I am a professional in the private, public, or not-for-profit sector wishing to undertake a training or research program in the U.S. (up to four months)

OR

I am a senior-level academic (associate or full professor) wishing to undertake research in the U.S. (up to 4 months)

---

Applications open
4 February - 15 July 2019

fulbright.org.au