

OctoberVET

Training for industry

A free research-based event in Ballarat

Multi Industry pre- apprenticeship pilot program

Gary Workman, Executive Director, Apprenticeship Employment Network, Victoria.

Managing Learning: What practices produce learning in organisations?

Llandis Barratt-Pugh, Edith Cowan University, WA.

What makes for effective partnerships between employers and Registered Training Organisations (RTOs)?

Erica Smith & Jackie Tuck, Federation University

'Pathways in Technology (P-TECH): A collaboration between High School and Industry' – developing 'New Collar' jobs for the future

Eliza Lane, Associate Director, College Programs Federation College & Steve Davies, IBM Australia's leader responsible for the GBS Client Innovation Centre in Ballarat

Please support Ballarat's tenth OctoberVET, mounted by Fed Uni's VET research group RAVE – Researching Adult and Vocational Education

<https://federation.edu.au/faculties-and-schools/faculty-of-education-and-arts/research/fea-research-groups/rave-researching-adult-and-vocational-education>

Thursday 9th of November 2017, 1.30pm – 4.30 pm

Registration and light lunch from 1.00pm
Afternoon tea also provided

Ballarat Technology Park, SMB Campus, Lydiard St, Ballarat city centre

Room: Seminar theatre, Tech Park Central (previously the Brewery building)

http://federation.edu.au/__data/assets/pdf_file/0010/234955/SMB-Campus-Map-June-2017.pdf

Easy access from the train station

Registration: Email vet.research@federation.edu.au

Please indicate any dietary requirements

The Australian Vocational Educational and Training Research Association (AVETRA) is committed to building and promoting research capability to ensure a rigorous and well informed VET system. OctoberVET is the name given to a series of events held throughout Australia to showcase VET research.

<https://avetra.org.au/>