

Lachlan Martin

Prose Bio (November 17, 2016)

Lachlan is currently touring Australia with Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing, playing the roles of Don John and Dogberry. Earlier this year he performed in back to back seasons at the Hayes Theatre as Lizard Man in Side Show and in Neglected Musical's Calamity Jane. Earlier this year he performed in the world premiere of Georgy Girl - the Seekers Musical, playing numerous roles whilst covering and performing the part of Athol Guy. Hailing from Adelaide, Lachlan is a graduate of the Arts Academy, Federation University. He originated the stage role of Clarry Welch in Baz Luhrmann's Strictly Ballroom the Musical, where he also covered Barry Fife and JJ Silvers. Lachlan has performed his autobiographical cabaret Grey Picket Fence to critical acclaim at the Adelaide Fringe and Ballarat Cabaret Festival. He has also performed at the Sydney Opera House as one of Australia's favourite bananas, B1. Guest performances include Carols by Candlelight, the Rob Guest Endowment and the Helpmann Awards. Other credits include Aunty Donna: Trendy, Mindgame, House at the End of the Line, and Killing Game. Lachlan would like to thank his friends, family and Ian White Management for their love and support.

You can connect with Lachie.

Instagram - @lachielove

twitter - @lachieilley